

1. Check (✓) the words that describe this book. Look in your dictionary for help.

Word List: Describing Things

Dictionary page 25

- | | | |
|---------------------------------|------------------------------------|------------------------------------|
| <input type="checkbox"/> little | <input type="checkbox"/> expensive | <input type="checkbox"/> easy |
| <input type="checkbox"/> big | <input type="checkbox"/> cheap | <input type="checkbox"/> difficult |
| <input type="checkbox"/> good | <input type="checkbox"/> beautiful | |
| <input type="checkbox"/> bad | <input type="checkbox"/> ugly | |

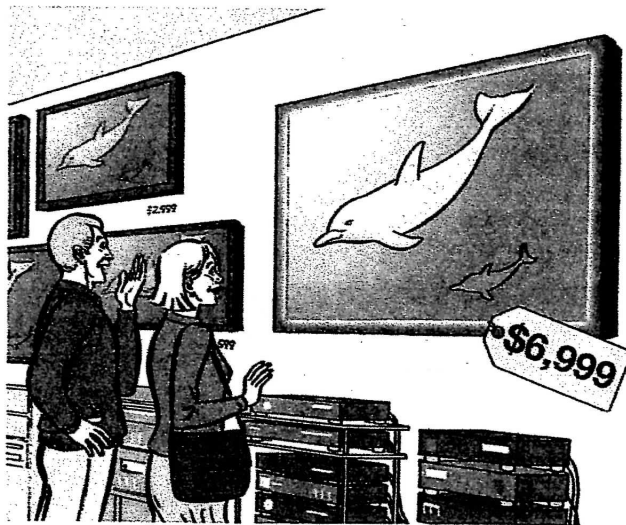

2. Write the opposite words. Use the words in the box.

~~big~~ bad difficult beautiful expensive

- | | | | |
|-----------|------------------------|---------|-------|
| a. little | _____ big _____ | d. good | _____ |
| b. cheap | _____ | e. ugly | _____ |
| c. easy | _____ | | |

3. Look at the picture. Circle the correct words.

- The TV is big / little.
- It's expensive / cheap.
- The picture is good / bad.
- They think the TV is ugly / beautiful.
- It's easy / difficult to see the picture on the TV.

4. What about you? Answer the questions.

- Is your classroom big or little? _____
- Is your class easy or difficult? _____
- Do you think homework is good or bad? _____